Contest Location: Animal Science 129 & Vet Science 130 9:00am, 11:00am, 1:00pm

There are three parts to the contest: General knowledge test, plant identification, along with flower judging and a practicum. The contestants will have 25 minutes to complete a 50-question knowledge exam. The general knowledge exam is a test regarding plant growing structures, insects, retail florist industry, greenhouse equipment, plant nutrients, growing media, plant science, propagation, and the greenhouse industry. Anything in these categories is fair game, so contestants should be well rounded in their knowledge of the floriculture industry. All answers to questions and information can be found in The AIFD Guide to Floral Design Terms, Techniques, and Traditions book published by The American Institute of Floral Designers. Additional questions can be found from previous state Minnesota and South Dakota FFA CDE Exams. The contestants will have 25 minutes to do 40 specimens from an identification list. Each contestant will have 30 seconds to identify the specimen during the contest. The plants will be cut flowers, potted green plants, potted blooming plants, and annual plants. The list that is used for this contest can be found on the South Dakota State FFA website. Hover over the "Events and Programs" tab and click on "Spring CDEs." Rules can be found under Floriculture rules. Contestants will have 25 minutes to complete judging classes and a 10-question practicum. For the first part, four classes will be judged consisting of four samples in each group. They are to be ranked from one (the best of the class) through four (the worst of the class) based on quality and condition. Contestants will receive score cards for each class on the day of the contest. Three minutes will be allowed for each class with a 30 second warning before the end of the three minutes. The specimens for each class will be chosen from this list:

Potted plants: African violets, azalea, chrysanthemum, cineraria, cyclamen, Easter lily, exacum, various foliage plants, geranium, gloxinia, hydrangea, kalanchoe, daffodils, poinsettia, primula, begonia, tulips.

Cut Flowers: Alstroemeria, carnation (standard or miniature), chrysanthemum (including standards, disbuds, or sprays), freesia, gerbera daisy, gladiolus, iris, daffodil, roses (standard or miniature), snapdragon, stock, tulips.

Other potted plants or cut flowers with approval of the Committee. For the second part, each participant will solve five problems related to the various aspects of the floriculture industry identified in the CDE objectives. Each problem will describe a situation associated with the floriculture industry and list four possible solutions. Each participant must utilize problem solving skills to select the BEST possible solution to the question. All materials and information necessary to solve the questions will be available to the participant. Time allotment for this test is outlined above. Contestants must bring their own pencils and a hard surface to write on. Little I staff will provide scorecards and answer sheets.

All participants in Little "I" will be required to pay a $25 deposit (the night of the drawing, Feb 6th, and before March 13th) to ensure that you will show your animal. If you show your hog, your $25 will be returned to you by the superintendent at clean up on March 31st. If you drop before March 13 at 5:00 pm for a refund, you must contact the superintendent and your $25 will be returned to you. If you drop after this date, your $25 will be forfeited.
2. All swine will be available to be worked on Monday after 10:00 am, on March 11th at the livestock arena.
3. All swine must be worked with by 5:00 pm, Wednesday, March 13th. A sign-up sheet will be posted and must be signed by March 13th by all people planning to show and only AFTER working their pig. If sheet is not signed, that person's pig will be resigned to another participant.
4. Anyone else eligible to compete in all livestock contests with exceptions to all divisions in which the top award has been previously won by that individual and anyone who has won the Grand Champion Showmanship Round Robin Award.
5. All entrants shall wear black pants, a white shirt, and a black tie. Cowboys hats are allowed.
6. All are responsible for providing their own show equipment.
7. All feeding and watering of pigs and cleaning of pens will be done by the superintendents.
8. No work will be allowed on the swine between 7:00 and 8:30 am and 6:00- 7:00 pm while they are being fed and pens are being cleaned; which will be strictly enforced only exception is show week.
9. Alleys, wash pens, and arena must be cleaned after working with your swine or $24 deposit will be forfeited. Additionally, all gates must be latched or you will forfeit your $25.
10. The judges' preferences on fitting will be posted on the north wall by the swine pens in the livestock arena.

Preparation of Show Animal:

1. Make sure animal is as clean as possible around hooves, underline, eyes, ears, etc. (Judges have checked inside ears.) Use a damp cloth in the ears to prevent getting water in ears.
2. Use show oil or powder at your own discretion, keeping the judge's preference in mind.
3. Do NOT use excessive oil as it overheats the pig.
4. Animals must be washed after any application of show oil or powder.
5. Hogs must be clipped by March 28th at 5:00 pm.

96th Little International

High Point Club Award

Rules and Regulations

What is it?

The High Point Club Award is in its seventh year. It is a competition for organizations in the College of Agriculture, Food, and Environmental Sciences of South Dakota State University. Clubs will arrange teams to compete in contests in Little "I" and gain points toward the High Point Club title.

Contests:

Vet Science	3 individuals compete in this contest
Farm Business Management	3 individuals compete in this contest
Horse Judging	3 individuals compete in this contest
Ag Product Sales	3 individuals compete in this contest
Meat Products	3 people compete on a team in this contest
Dairy Products	3 people compete on a team in this contest
Club Basket	Club donates a basket for the silent auction to promote both their club and Little International
Lamb Lead	Club shows one lamb to promote both their club and Little I

Rules:

1. Students can NOT judge on a team for their club if they are a superintendent or assistant of one of the contests.
2. Students can NOT judge in a contest if they were/are a member of that collegiate judging team.
3. Contest rules are the same for the collegiate members as the high school contests.
4. Individuals must choose one club to represent.
5. A tie will be broken on the percentage of members participating in the showmanship/fitting contests.
6. Clubs do not need to participate in every contest, however it is recommended for maximum points.

Round Robin Showmanship Contest

The Round Robin Showmanship Contest will be a showmanship contest for the champion and reserve champion winners of each specie experienced showmanship contest to compete for the overall showmanship award. This contest will take place at 8:10 pm on March 30.

General Rules

1. There will be a total of twelve contestants, with two contestants from each species.
2. The champion and reserve champion experienced showman from each species will compete.
3. Each contestant will bring their animal to be used in the contest.
4. A rotation will be 5 minutes long. Each contestant will exhibit all six species.
5. In the case of an individual winning grand champion showman in more than one species, a coin flip will be conducted to determine which species he/she will represent. The species not represented by the individual will bring the third-place showman to compete in the round robin competition.
6. An individual who has won the round robin showmanship contest in the past may not exhibit livestock at Little International in the future years. However, the individual may compete in general contests.
7. The Round Robin contest will count towards points in the high point freshman and upperclassman competitions. However, placing in the round robin contest may be used as a tie breaker.
